UNCORKED HIS CHOLER.

Judge Scott Lectures City Prosecutor Shoamaker for Whispering. City Prosecutor Shoemaker was given a taste of Judge Scott's terrid temper yesterday afternoon. The judge seems to delight in reasting some of the city officials at every opportunity and he keeps a well charged bottle of his choler on tap for instant use when something happens which does not accord with his views. Yesterday the city prosecute an alleged offender of the city's prosecute an alleged offender of the city's presses. morals. After the case had been given to the court Presecutor Sheemaker turned to a man with whom he had some busines; and began holding a whispered conversation. This annoyed Judge Scott, who turned to Mr. Shoemaker and remarked that he had be-tened to the case with dus judicial patience and he hoped that the city presecutor would have chough courtesy and decency to been still while he (Scott) was reviewing the case. The sudden onslaught greatly embarrasted the city prosecutor, who was unaware that he was disturbing his judicial highness. The case was that of the city against Comings and Slobodinsky, in which the defendants were charged with conducting a disorderly house at the corner of Ninth and Capital an irregularity in the drawing up of the cor plaint, which was done by ex-Prosecutor
